'Liquid Brownie'

Potluck

2002 Fancy Food Show Award Finalist
 "Outstanding Confection"

Alexander's Famous Foods of California, maker of Fudge Fatale since 1998, has introduced its "chocolate to die for" in a second form. Fudge Fatale the Ultimate Chocolate Sauce first appeared in July at the Fancy Food Show, where it was judged a finalist as outstanding confection. Like the candy, the sauce is made in small batches of all-natural ingredients with no preservatives. Can be warmed for a fondue or dessert topping or used straight from the jar. It tastes, one sampler said, "like a liquid brownie." Sold in sleek 9-ounce "wave" jar (two to a pack), $22, or a whopping 74-ounce size, $60, both prices plus shipping. Order from www.fudgefatale.com, or call 1-888-923-8343.
